9:15	III. COVID Program Updates  Head Start: in person services and providing distance learning service. Attendance is steady – spent a lot of time training families with technology. Are planning reopening in the beginning in March will phase in reopening. Enrollment has not declined. The gap is wider and has as many children returning so recruitment will be a big focus. Offering food services to families – days a week, two meals and seeing the numbers pick up. Will try to continue to offer food services. Getting ready for state audit and food program audit. LOSD: have two classrooms open AM and PM and two distance learning classes 3 days a week for families not interested in returning to preschool. Hold Harmless contracts, self-evaluations and curriculum. Had possible exposure information and protocols. Teachers are doing DRDP and getting into the groove, and will close during the week of parent conferences via zoom. WAFWC: open had an exposure and served a smaller number of students and staff. Trying to limit the number of	All

	people we are in contact with. Sharing with parents the COVID protocols. It's all about trust, don't have infant and toddler classes open. Will need to enroll for infant and toddler rooms in the fall. Comm. Bridges: continuing services at 6 centers have had exposure at 4 of 6 centers. Families have seen families with many types of exposure scenarios. Team received notice to get the vaccine. Will close Redwood Mt. center due to site sup, resigning. Arasele Rocha Maria Hurtado has been promoted to directors. And another staff person. Cabrillo College: all classrooms are open. Families are interested in enrolling their children. I/T class is full and PreK is not quite full. COVID procedures are working for us. The rain turned the sandbox into a beach. Food program review coming up. Go Kids: have experience, still looking for an office in Watsonville. Done meet and greets with voucher providers to provide answers to their questions.
